POLICY PLANNING AND REVIEW

Whilst we have had a duty to develop and publish equality schemes in relation to both gender and disability and a race equality policy, we at Fairway Primary School are considering all aspects of diversity and equality in this comprehensive policy to be followed by a revised specific equality action plan with clear objectives in relation to all strands covering a four-year period to be effective by the required date of April 6th 2012.

Policy planning and development

- In the planning and development stage of policy-making, we will ensure we have consulted and taken into account stakeholder views.
- All improvement plans will be designed with an element of impact assessment built in to monitor the success of each activity.
- All objectives will be specific and measurable with clear progress evaluation methods.
- There will be a systematic review of the impact of all policies and procedures on equality and diversity to address any areas of inequality.
- Our target-setting processes ensure appropriate, challenging targets are set in relation to identifiable groups as well as individual pupils / cohorts.

Monitoring and Quality Assurance

- Each pupil's progress is monitored and tracked. The resulting data is analysed in respect of gender, race, ability or additional needs, looked-after status.
- In addition to monitoring to rule out any potential disadvantage, quality assurance procedures ensure the school meets its duty to positively promote diversity.
- The data collected is used to inform further school planning, target-setting and decision-making.
- The impact of school policies on all aspects of access, admission and exclusion data will be considered.

EQUALITY OBJECTIVES

Advancing equality of opportunity

As set out in the DfE guidance on the Equality Act, the school aims to advance equality of opportunity by:

- Removing or minimising disadvantages suffered by people which are connected to a particular characteristic they have (e.g. pupils with disabilities, or gay pupils who are being subjected to homophobic bullying)
- Taking steps to meet the particular needs of people who have a particular characteristic (e.g. making physical adaptations to improve physical access for those with a specific need)
- Encouraging people who have a particular characteristic to participate fully in any activities (e.g. encouraging all pupils to be involved in the full range of school clubs)

In fulfilling this aspect of the duty, the school will:

- Publish relevant attainment data each academic year showing how pupils with different characteristics are performing
- Make evidence available identifying improvements for specific groups
- Publish further data about any issues associated with particular protected characteristics, identifying any issues which could affect our own pupils

Fostering good relations

The school aims to foster good relations between those who share a protected characteristic and those who do not share it by:

- Promoting tolerance, friendship and understanding of a range of religions and cultures through different aspects of our curriculum. This includes teaching in RE, Relationships Education, PHSE and in other areas of school provision.
- Holding assemblies dealing with relevant issues led by members of the school community or external speakers.
- Working within our local community. This includes inviting leaders of local faith groups to speak at assemblies, and organising school trips and activities based around the local community
- Encouraging and implementing initiatives to deal with tensions between different groups of pupils within the school. All pupils are encouraged to participate in the school's activities, such as sports clubs. We also work with parents to promote knowledge and understanding of different cultures
- We have developed links with people and groups who have specialist knowledge about particular characteristics, which helps inform and develop our approach

Equality considerations in decision-making

The school ensures it has due regard to equality considerations whenever significant decisions are made.

The school always considers the impact of significant decisions on particular groups. For example, when a school trip or activity is being planned, the school considers whether the trip:

- Cuts across any religious holidays
- Is accessible to pupils with disabilities
- Has equivalent facilities for boys and girls

Monitoring arrangements

The governing body will annually monitor the key issues and incidents relating to the statements in this policy.

This document will be reviewed by the governing body at least every 4 years.

This document will be approved by the governing body
